Article Information

Title of Article _____

Date of the Article (Not older than 2 weeks) _____

Type the current event on this template. Each section must be a paragraph in length. The current event must be 150 words so each section must have 50 words for a good grade. Staple a copy of the newspaper article to the worksheet. If article is from the internet, print the first page of the article.

Total number of words used ____ / 150 Words (Must write the total number NO CREDIT!)

Summarize (50 Words) Explain the article in your own words. Do not retype the article, but summarize its meaning.

Significance (50 Words) Explain why this article is important and related to the course (i.e., Civics, Economics, U.S. History, World History). If you do not know why the article is important or related to the course, then it's probably an indication to pick a new article.

Opinion (50 Words) Express your opinion about the subject of your article and take a stance (support or do not support). If you cannot write an opinion on the article, you need to select an article in which you can write one.
